Young Professionals (younger than 40) are entitled to a preferred membership fee of $50. Designed for all individuals who seek active participation in the Belgian-American community. Typically for students, supporters, freelance, self-employed, retirees, employees of large multinationals etc.

Benefits include:

- opportunity to mingle with shakers and movers within the Belgo-US business community
- invitations to all regular BACC events (regular BACC events are charged $30 for members or $50 for non-members)
- eligible to serve on BACC Board of Directors and committees
- member name/company name recognition on the BACC Website Directory

Business Member

Annual Dues: $600

Designed for companies that seek a strong level of participation in the Belgian-American business Community. This membership level allows 3 related individuals to participate. This is the BACC's basic membership which is aimed at small and medium sized companies, allowing these companies and its entrepreneurs to get access to the Strategic Business Center.

Benefits include:

- all benefits available to Individual member
- access to the BACC's Strategic Business Center
- eligibility to become a monthly 'Membership Spotlight'
- opportunity to promote company's services by being the organizer of one of our events

Patron Member

Annual Dues: $2,500

This is the BACC's premier, exclusive partnership category of membership. Started in 2009, our Patron Membership option offers a one-stop membership which includes all entities of the same parent business located in US or Belgium and exclusive, preferred entry to all other members for business development opportunities. Whether you have three, four or twenty entities and 5,000 people – this membership option brings them all in.

More than envisaged return, a patron member defines the future of the BACC, creating Belgian-American corporate success stories.

Benefits include:

- all benefits available to Business Member
- free access to all regular BACC events
- eligible to 1 guaranteed Corporate event highlighting your company's products and/or services to a high profile audience, facilitated by BACC
- if requested, seat in Board of Directors
- exclusive preferred partnership status with permanent link and logo on website
