

Belcham invites you to an exhibition with private reception of Belgian artist
Manor Grunewald.

“Up to Maximum Freedom, or down to the Ant Heap”

Sponsored by Highlight Gallery , in presence of the artist

Manor currently has a solo show at Gallery Fortlaan in Ghent and a group show at the Hermitage Museum in Amsterdam. He was nominated for the “Prix de la Jeune Peinture Belge” award at the Bozar in Brussels in 2011 and was also awarded the BNP Paribas Young Talent Award. This will be Manor’s first show in the United States.

Highlight Gallery presents contemporary art curated by country. The artists it represents have had gallery, institutional, art fair and print exposure in their home country and abroad. Highlight Gallery expands their exposure internationally through art fairs, and in San Francisco through its gallery.

For Year One, Highlight Gallery features Belgium and shows works in a variety of media from the country’s contemporary artists. After Year One, Highlight Gallery will feature another country and its art each year, while still promoting and exhibiting the artists whom it represents.

Thursday, February 2, 2012

6:30 PM – 8:30PM

Highlight Gallery

3043 Clay Street, San Francisco

RSVP by January 31, 2012

To RSVP, please email Claudine Descheemaeker at Claudine@checkster.com