Global Trade & Economic Outlook:

Implications for international business in the year ahead

Join us for the premier international event of the year! This event attracts New England companies involved in international business. The evening will feature a global trade and economic outlook forum and a resource center with many international trade associations and government agencies presenting informative exhibits.

Meet corporate executives and other professionals interested in world trade—while learning about the resources available to help your company's international business!

Speakers

Michael Goodman is Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of Public Policy at UMass Dartmouth. A leading analyst of both the Massachusetts and the New England economies, Goodman is co-editor of MassBenchmarks, the journal of the Massachusetts economy published by the UMass Donahue Institute in collaboration with the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston.

Geoffrey Somes is Senior Economist with State Street Global Advisors. In his role, he forecasts and analyzes economic events in the global economy and evaluates their impacts on financial markets. He has been a professional economist since 1991, previously serving as Senior Economist with FleetBoston Financial Group and as Director of Macroeconomic Forecasting with Economy.com. He also served as a Financial Economist with the US Department of the Treasury in Washington, DC.
